

Important Raffle $10,000 and Less Licensing Information

Please review the following before completing the Eligibility for Raffle Licence (Total Ticket Value $10,000 and Less Only) form. This form is used to determine a group's eligibility with the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission (AGLC) as a charitable or religious entity eligible to conduct a raffle event – see Eligibility Guidelines. This is not an application for a raffle licence. The Eligibility application approves a group for ongoing raffle licences as long as the group does not cease gaming activities for more than a two (2) year period.

- The Eligibility Unit will process the application within 3 - 5 business days, if the form is complete upon submission. Processing will take longer if the form is incomplete or there is not enough information provided.
- The applicant group is not required to be incorporated, but must be non-profit and have an elected executive. In addition, there are no provisions allowed for payment to members, directors or officers, including payment of income, honorariums, dividends, shares or transfer of property.
- If the group's eligibility is approved, the application form, which will have the assigned AGLC ID # on it, will be forwarded to the group via fax, mail or email. An AGLC ID # is assigned to the group upon receipt of their first application for any type of gaming licence. If the group has not previously applied for a gaming licence, it will not have an assigned number. If the group has applied in the past, the ID # can be found on any AGLC correspondence previously sent to the group. You will find it located next to the organization's name, for example; ABC Club of Alberta (ID # 123456). If you are unable to reference this number, the application will be accepted without it.
- Upon approval, you may go to your local Registry office to obtain a raffle licence. Providing the Registry office the group's AGLC ID # will assist them to locate your group's name in the online Gaming Licensing System.
- The Registry office will create the licence with the raffle details you provide. Upon receipt of the licence, ensure all of the information is correct. The Registry agent can correct any errors during that business day and will reprint the licence.
- You may also obtain an online licence by using your AGLC Internet Account.
- Any questions regarding your raffle event can be directed to Raffle Licensing at 780-447-8600 or toll free at 1-800-272-8876 during regular business hours.
- Any changes or amendments to the licence must be submitted to the AGLC and be approved prior to any changes being implemented.
- When the event is complete, or the last draw listed on the licence is finished, the licence is expired.
- Should you wish to hold another raffle event, please obtain a new raffle licence at the Registry office or apply online. There is no need to resubmit an eligibility application to the AGLC as long as the group has not ceased gaming activities for more than a two (2) year period.
- Ensure you review Raffle Terms and Conditions to understand the financial reporting obligations. Raffle Terms and Conditions are available at aglc.ca.
- An updated elected executive list must be submitted to AGLC whenever there is a change in the group's executive. This form is available on our website at aglc.ca.
