December - SOURCE FOR SPORTS PLAYER OF THE MONTH

The Source for Sports Players of the Month for December are:

Defenseman Matthew Waseylenko of the St. Albert Sports Raiders (Dodge Division). Matthew's consistent play during the month of December help kept the Raiders in first place in the Dodge Division of the AMHL. . He plays an important role on both the teams power play and penalty kill units. His skating ability and size makes him difficult to play against. Matthew is one of the Raiders team leaders with his positive encouraging attitude. .

Defenseman Geoff Crisfield of the Calgary Royals (Chrysler Division). During the month of December Geoff lead his team to an undefeated record. Geoff is a highly skilled player and is passionate about the game, as team Captain he is sure to put his team and teammates ahead of himself. Geoff has been a model teammate and an enthusiastic leader on and off the ice providing the Royals with great inspirational leadership this season.

Both players received a Hundred (100) dollar gift certificate from the Source for Sports Dealers of Alberta, a Timex Watch imprinted with the AMHL logo and a commemorative plaque from the Alberta 'AAA' Midget Hockey League. Every player nominated, from the other sixteen teams in the league, received a $50.00 gift certificate from the Source for Sports Dealers of Alberta.
